

This plot displays training data of two classes, the + class and the □ class. A test data point is shown as a ○. For every odd value of k from 1 to 9, give the classification of the test point under the k -NN rule.

